(4-1), 10-9, on Wednesday night at HODGÈTOWN. The Cardinals scored first for the second straight night and held a early 4-0 lead after the top of the fourth. A six-run frame that brought nine Soddies to the plate erased the fourrun deficit. The first four batters reached, with Jose Fernandez recording an RBI walk with the bases loaded. Caleb Roberts added another run on a RBI groundout before Kristian Robinson left the park to push Amarillo out in front, 5-4. The Soddies weren't done in the frame, as Tommy Troy launched his first Double-A homer out to left-center for a 6-4 Amarillo advantage. Springfield scratched for a run in the sixth and used a three-run seventh to go back in front, 8-6. Amarillo answered again in the bottom of the eighth, scoring three runs. Troy grabbed his second RBI and third hit of the night to cut the Cardinals' lead to one, before Christian Cerda's clutch go-ahead, two-RBI base hit gave the Soddies the 9-8 lead. Springfield grabbed momentum in the ninth, tying the game with a single and hit a go-ahead sacrifice fly for a 10-9 lead. Amarillo put the tying and go-ahead runs on base in the bottom half, but failed to score, securing the win for Springfield.

HALF A DOZEN: The Sod Poodles put together a six-run fourth inning in Wednesday's contest, erasing a four-run deficit in the process...Amarillo most recently accomplished a six-run inning last season in a home game on August 8 against Northwest Arkansas in the seventh inning.

MULTI-HIT MADNESS: A quintet of Amarillo hitters recorded multi-hit nights yesterday, with Andy Weber, LuJames Groover, Jack Hurley, and Kristian Robinson each notching at least two hits with Tommy Troy adding three hits to his ledger...the five multi-hit performances are the most by the Sod Poodles in a single game this season...these five combined to hit 11-for-24 (.458) on Wednesday, picking up all four extra base hits and five of the nine

EXTRA, EXTRA: As a team, the Soddies tallied four extra base hits (2 2B, 2 HR) in last night's game...tied a single-game high for Amarillo, also achieved on April 8 against Springfield...the Sod Poodles outhomered their opponent for the second time this season, having done so in the series finale at San Antonio on April 6...in both games, Amarillo pitching did not give up a home

LUCKY 13: Amarillo broke out the lumber yesterday, recording 13 hits against Springfield pitchers...this marked the first time the Soddies reached double-digits in the hit column...the Amarillo lineup had 13 combined hits in their previous two games prior to Wednesday's showing.

TOMMY BOY: Checking in with a solid performance at the dish last night was Tommy Troy, as he put together a 3-for-5 showing...Arizona's eighthrated prospect had two singles, walked once, drove in two runs, scored twice and recorded his first Double-A home run in the six-run Amarillo fourth.

MOVIN' AND GROOVER: Another game, another hit for Lujames Groover... the third baseman added a single and double to his season totals while stretching his season opening hit streak to five...Groover is hitting 7-for-21 (.333) to start the year and continues to hold the team's best batting average... Groover is halfway to breaking Ryan Bliss's 10-game 2023 season opening streak, the franchise record to start a campaign.

DOWN IN THE DESERT: Former Soddie Jorge Barrosa launched a gametying two-run homer for Triple-A Reno as part of a six-run seventh that powered the Aces to a 6-2 road victory over the Salt Lake Bees (Los Angeles Angels)...Sod Poodle alum Kyle Backhus earned his first win of the season after a clean, scoreless seventh inning and notched two strikeouts.
